

PT Memo #17 from Ron
Aug 5, 2010

Dear PTers,

I welcome your feedback or email just to say Hi and to tell me how we are doing. Thanks to those who have written. I look forward to hearing from those of you who have been very quiet. So do write and introduce yourself, okay. I keep a prayer diary to pray for you all even if I do not know you personally...yet.

I would like to take this opportunity to especially welcome returning PTers from Malaysia and those online, as well as a warm welcome to new PT centers in Switzerland and California. Dr Andre Ong, who pastors the International Christian Church of San Diego will lead PT-San Diego and my old buddy and former PT-New York Tutor, Gene Yuan will lead PT-Basel from Crossroads International Church of Basel. This is very exciting I know for PT's coordinator, Suzy Ulrich because Basel is her ancestral hometown. So she can pop in to join them when she visits her folks. And THAT is my dream for a global PT, that we will sprout centers in the major cities of the world so that anyone of you can drop by to join any center if you find yourself in that city – because everyone is doing the same study each month.

The PT Reading Schedule for each month has been posted on the PT webpage as is the Guide notes. Please login to retrieve them. We are in the final stages of the NT and OT books and they should be available before the first PT session. So for now, please bear with us and use the pdf files posted for Sam-Kings and Luke-Acts.
